

THE EQUITY CHRONICLE

THREE MONTHS OF EXCELLENCE, GROWTH AND IMPACT

JULY - SEPTEMBER

FROM THE EQUITY CHAMBERS, FACULTY OF LAW, BAYERO UNIVERSITY KANO.

Welcome to another edition of the Equity Chambers Newsletter.

Over the past three months, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, has witnessed a remarkable period of learning, advocacy, professional development, and achievement. From practical courtroom exercises and moot competitions to professional engagements, webinars, mentorship, and other capacity-building initiatives, the period has been a reflection of our continued commitment to excellence.

This edition, themed “The Equity Chronicle: Three Months of Excellence, Growth and Impact,” brings together some of the memorable moments and significant activities that shaped the Chambers during this period. More than a collection of events, it is a reflection of the collective efforts of our members, Managing Partners, mentors, speakers, judges, alumni, and friends of the Chambers who continue to contribute to our growth.

At Equity Chambers, we remain committed to creating opportunities that extend beyond the classroom—opportunities that challenge our members to learn, participate, lead, advocate, and grow. Every competition, training session, professional engagement, and achievement contributes to the larger vision of nurturing competent, confident, and principled future advocates.

As we look back on these three months, we celebrate not only what has been achieved but also the spirit of dedication and collaboration that made these achievements possible. We look forward to an even more impactful journey ahead.

Welcome to the Equity Chronicle.

First Semester Moot Trial

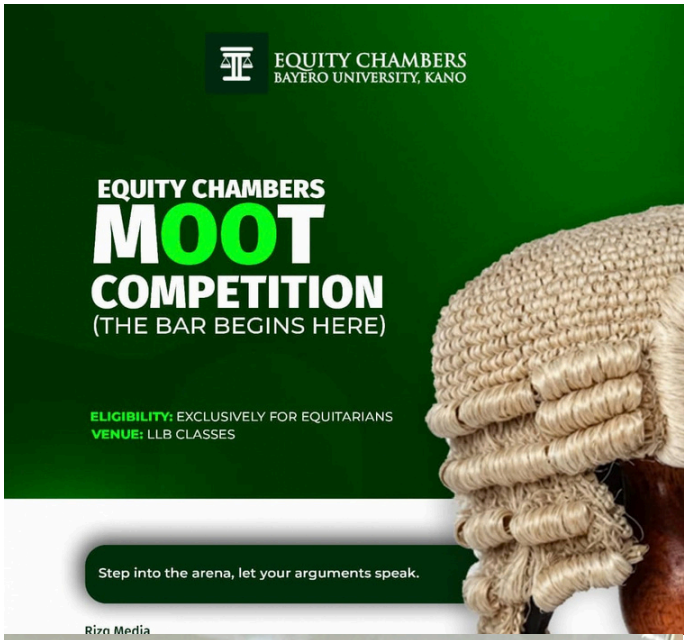

On 7 July 2026, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, successfully hosted its Traditional Moot Competition. The competition provided Equitarians with an opportunity to demonstrate their legal knowledge, research abilities, and courtroom advocacy skills through structured arguments before the Bench.

Beyond the competitive aspect, the event served as a practical learning experience, fostering confidence, teamwork, intellectual development, and effective advocacy. It further reflected the Chambers' commitment to providing students with practical platforms to develop the skills required for the legal profession.

Equity Chambers appreciates the judges, participants, Managing Partners, and all members of the Chambers whose contributions made the event a success.

At the Arewa Young Lawyers Forum Summit

On 9th July 2026, Equity Chambers, Bayero University Kano, participated in an insightful programme themed “Taking a Stand: Building a Sustainable Legal Practice,” held at Amani Event Centre. The programme brought together legal practitioners and students for meaningful discussions on the realities of legal practice and the values required to build a sustainable and impactful career in the profession.

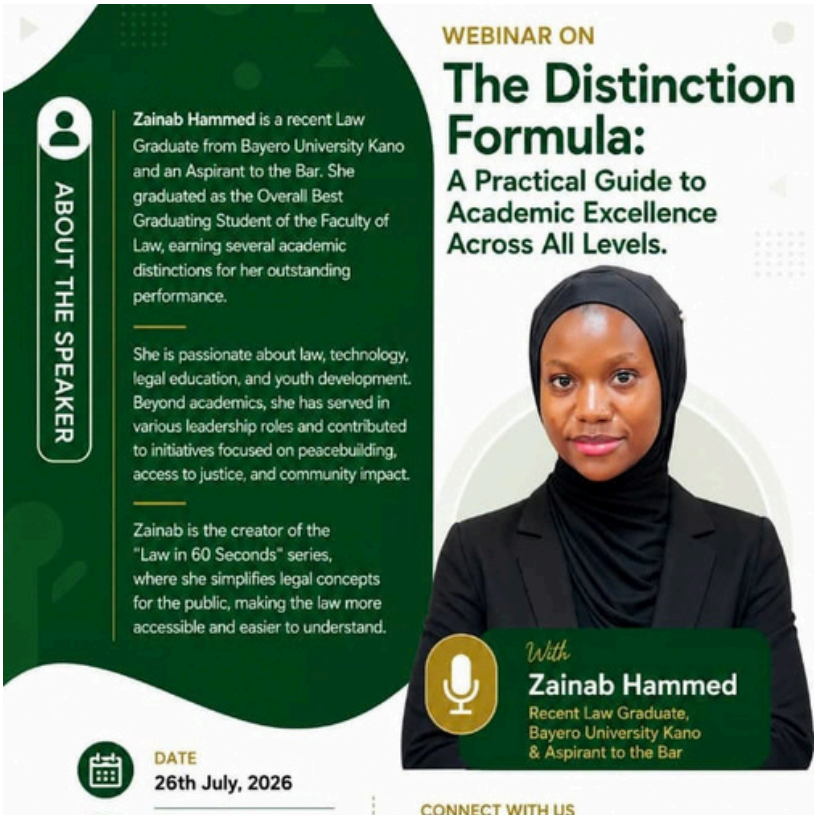

The discussions highlighted the importance of continuous learning and professional development, particularly for young lawyers navigating the early stages of their careers. The speakers also emphasized the need for proper welfare, mentorship, and guidance for young lawyers, noting the role these play in fostering growth and building a strong and resilient legal profession.

Equally, issues of professional ethics, respect for the rule of law, integrity, and professionalism were emphasized as essential qualities for every aspiring and practicing lawyer. The programme provided students with an opportunity to engage directly with legal practitioners, learn from the experiences and presentations of the speakers, and gain valuable exposure to the realities of the professional space.

The event was a valuable learning experience for members of Equity Chambers, reinforcing the importance of preparing not only academically capable law students but also principled, competent, and professionally grounded future lawyers.

Preparatory Webinar for First Semester Exam

On Sunday, 26 July 2026, Equity Chambers, Bayero University Kano, hosted an insightful webinar titled "The Distinction Formula: A Practical Guide to Academic Excellence Across All Levels." The session featured Zainab Hammed, the Overall Best Graduating Student of the Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, who shared valuable insights from her academic journey and experience.

The session focused on practical strategies, effective study techniques, discipline, and the mindset required to achieve outstanding academic results. Through her experiences, participants gained useful guidance on navigating the demands of legal education and striving for academic excellence.

The programme reflected Equity Chambers' continued commitment to promoting academic excellence alongside professional development and equipping its members with the knowledge and skills necessary to thrive both within and beyond the classroom.

Donation of Wigs and Gowns by Founding Fathers

On 3 August 2026, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, had the honour of hosting one of its esteemed founding fathers, Muhammad Dutsinma, Esq., who represented the other founding fathers in presenting three sets of wigs and gowns donated to the Chambers.

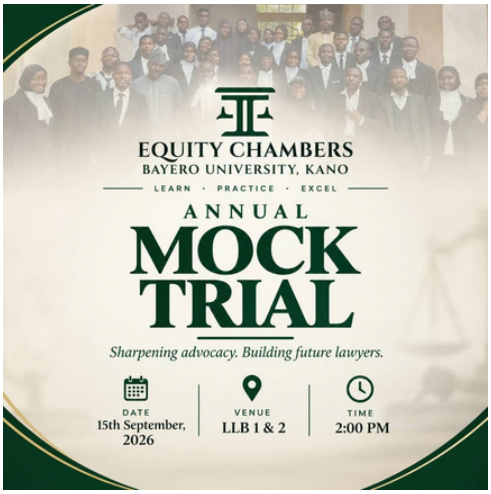

During the visit, Mr. Dutsinma reflected on the vision and determination that led to the establishment of Equity Chambers and encouraged members to preserve its values through commitment, excellence, and active participation in Chamber activities. He also urged the Managing Partners to remain steadfast in upholding the ideals of the founding fathers and ensuring the continued growth of the Chambers.

The donated wigs and gowns will further support advocacy training and practical development of members. Equity Chambers sincerely appreciates its founding fathers, particularly Muhammad Dutsinma, Esq., for their continued support, as well as Yahaya M. Yari, Esq., whose efforts contributed to the realization of the donation.

Mock Trial Competition

On 15 September 2026, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, held its Annual Mock Trial as part of its longstanding tradition of practical legal training. The event provided members with an opportunity to experience courtroom proceedings, apply their legal knowledge, and sharpen their advocacy skills through practical engagement.

The Mock Trial further complemented the Chambers' traditional moot activities by exposing students to the realities of courtroom practice and encouraging confidence, teamwork, and effective legal argument.

2nd Semester Moot Trial (first phase)

On 23 September 2026, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, held the first phase of its Second Semester Moot Competition, introducing members to a more practical approach to moot court exercises.

The first phase focused on interlocutory applications, providing participants with an opportunity to understand how such applications are prepared, presented, and argued before the court. Through the exercise, members engaged in persuasive advocacy, legal reasoning, and courtroom arguments, gaining practical experience beyond the traditional moot format.

The exercise further provided a platform for Equitarians to sharpen their advocacy and courtroom skills while fostering confidence, intellectual engagement, and a deeper appreciation of practical legal proceedings. It reaffirmed the Chambers' commitment to creating opportunities for members to learn and develop the skills required for effective legal practice.

Equity Chambers emerged Winner of Chijioke SAN Moot Competition

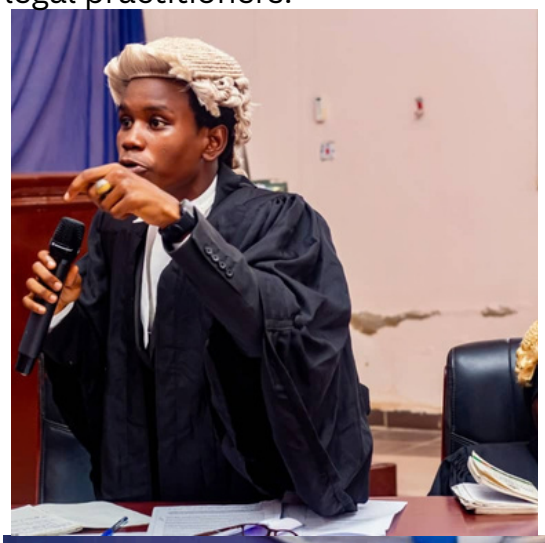

On 24 September 2026, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, emerged champions of the Grand Finale of the Inter-Chamber Moot Court Competition, held in honour of Sir Chijioke Precious Emeka, SAN.

The Chambers secured its place in the final after defeating Almaslaha Chambers and went on to overcome Liberty Chambers in the final, with a strong display of legal research, advocacy, and courtroom skill.

The victorious team comprised Rasheed Rasheed Kabir, SABUK; Fatima Saka Ahmad; Khadija Aminu Bichi; and Amina Mayaki, whose outstanding performances contributed to the Chambers' success. Their efforts were further recognised with awards for Best Oralist, Best Mooter, and Outstanding Junior Counsel.

The victory marks another significant achievement for Equity Chambers and reflects its continued commitment to practical legal training, advocacy, and the development of future legal practitioners.

Equity Chambers Monthly Webinar

On 26 September 2026, Equity Chambers, Faculty of Law, Bayero University Kano, commenced its Monthly Webinar Series with a session themed "From Law Student to Learned Advocate: Building a Successful Legal Career." The maiden session featured Musa Ahmad Attah, SAN, who shared practical insights on navigating the transition from law school into legal practice.

The session provided members with valuable perspectives on career development, professional growth, and the realities of building a successful legal career. It also created an avenue for students to engage with an experienced legal practitioner, ask questions, and gain insights beyond the classroom.

The webinar marked the beginning of an initiative aimed at exposing aspiring advocates to practical knowledge, mentorship, and professional guidance as they prepare for the legal profession.
